HIGH COURT CONVICTS GOVERNOR SULZER

Finds Sulzer Guilty on Three Charges.

VERDICT CARRIES HIS REMOVAL FROM OFFICE

Vote on Articles One and Two Shows Bare Two-thirds Majority.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 17.—Governor William Sulzer was found guilty by the high court of impeachment on three of the articles preferred against him. They were 1, 2 and 4. He was declared innocent of the charges contained in article 3.

He will be removed from office, but not disqualified from holding office in this state in the future unless there is a substantial change in the informal vote reported to have been taken by the court on these questions in secret session.

For the same reason it was expected that he will be found not guilty on the other four articles still remaining to be voted upon.

Lieutenant Governor Martin H. Glynn, who has been acting governor since the impeachment of Sulzer, will become chief executive of the state. He is an Albany newspaper owner. Robert F. Wagner, a New York attorney, will become lieutenant governor. He is the majority leader in the senate.

Scant Two-thirds Majority.

The vote on articles 1 and 2 was 29 to 18, a bare two-thirds majority. The former article charges that the governor falsified his statement of campaign contributions, the latter that he committed perjury in so doing.

The vote on article 3, which charges the governor bribed witnesses to withhold testimony from the Frawley investigating committee, was unanimous in favor of the governor.

The vote on article 4 was 43 to 14, six members changing their votes on articles 1 and 2 from "not guilty" to "guilty" and two from "guilty" to "not guilty." This article charges that the governor suppressed evidence by means of threats to keep witnesses from testifying. Among those was Duncon W. Peck, state superintendent of public works, who testified that the governor had asked him to commit perjury.

The secret informal vote to remove the governor was said to be 43 to 14, the same as on article 4, and the vote not to disqualify him was said to be unanimous.

Not Guilty of Larceny.

Article 6, which charges that the governor committed larceny in speculating with his campaign contributions, was said not to have been sustained in the secret session by a vote of 50 declaring the governor not guilty to 7 against him.

Article 5, which charges that he prevented a particular witness, Frederick L. Colwell, from attending the sessions of the Frawley committee; article 7, that he threatened to use his office and influence to affect the vote or political action of certain assemblymen, and article 8, that he corruptedly used his influence to affect the prices of securities on the stock exchange, were reported also to have been decided in favor of the governor in the secret session by a practically unanimous vote.

Presiding Judge Edgar M. Cullen, who will shortly retire from the bench, voted "not guilty" on every article and rendered a long opinion in explaining his votes. The eight other judges of the court of appeals were divided.

EBERHART SILENT ON RACE

Governor Declines to Comment on Iverson's Candidacy.

St. Paul, Oct. 17.—Governor Eberhart returned to St. Paul from Hannibal, Mo., in time to address the delegates to the Minnesota League of Municipalities on public utilities at the banquet at the Saint Paul hotel.

Concerning the announcement of the candidacy of Samuel G. Iverson, state auditor, and his platform, Mr. Eberhart refused to make any comment. Neither would he say when he would announce his candidacy, if at all.

"There is plenty of time yet to make announcement of my candidacy," he said.

CAPTAIN DENIES COWARDLY ACTS

Inch Says Volturino's Crew Behaved Admirably.

OTHER VESSELS ACTED NOBLY

Commander of Ill Fated Ship Which Burned at Sea Arrives at New York and Asserts There Was No Rush of Seamen for Lifeboats and That He Did Not Have to Draw His Revolver.

New York, Oct. 17.—Francis Inch, the boyish looking Briton who commanded the burned steamer Volturino, came to port, bringing with him eighty-seven survivors, passengers and crew, of his ill starred vessel. His story of the disaster, in which 136 lives were lost, had preceded him by wireless, but in a cabin on the Kroonland, which brought him here, Inch told his tale in simply phrased and modestly spoken details that described more vividly than the wireless could picture the panorama of the Volturino's loss and the rescue of more than 500 of those she had on board.

Cowardice there was none on the Volturino, either among officers or crew, Inch said. There was no rush of seamen which made it necessary for him to warn them back with his revolver. His revolver was in a drawer in his cabin and it burned with the ship. And no one on board drew a revolver. These statements he intended should refute the stories told by stowaway passengers who arrived on the Grosser Kurfuerst.

Has Praise for Every One.

The Volturino's master, besides defending his own officers and men, said he had no criticism to make of the tactics of any of the boats that stood by. "The Carmania did its best, the same as the others," he said. "There is none but praise for every one. I did not expect a boat could live in those seas when the Carmania and the other first few ships came up." The Carmania did drop a boat, Inch declared, but it couldn't get near, for the Volturino drifted faster than the crew could row.

Eighteen cabin and two steerage passengers entered the first lifeboat that ventured to leave the Volturino. Only enough of the crew stepped in to man it, said Inch; they did not rush to it and it was not crowded. Entangling itself in its after tackle, it was capsized. All in it were drowned except Chief Officer Miller and a steward, who climbed into it after it had righted. Into the next boat went thirty passengers and ten sailors. This boat got away all right but has not been heard from.

Counted Three Explosions.

Inch denied reports of rotting tackle and fire hose and of unsafe lifeboats, all of which were in good condition, he said. He counted only three explosions, the last one wrecking wheel and compass so that a handcar had to be rigged up.

Inch denied stories of stowaway passengers that women were swept overboard and babies were trampled while being rescued by the Grosser Kurfuerst's first boat that came in response to Lloyd's call. Officers urged men and women to jump overboard when the lifeboat could not get near enough for them to be lowered into it. None dared jump. "Show them how to jump," Inch told his crew. Two at a time they leaped over the side. When passengers saw them reach the lifeboat they followed them into the sea. With boat-hooks and oars some were rescued. Others met their death.

Inch's three children and their mother are in London. One of his first acts upon arriving here was to send them a cablegram. Their father worked thirty-six hours without eating or drinking, refusing to leave the work of fire fighting.

Montana Pioneer Is Dead.

Butte, Mont., Oct. 17.—John R. Quigley, Sr., pioneer of prominence and a well known Democrat, is dead after a week's illness in a hospital at Deer Lodge, his home town. Mr. Quigley opened the first store in Blackfoot City in 1869 and, following the creation of Powell county, he had enjoyed the distinction of being the chairman of every county convention held in that county.

Springfield, Mo., Oct. 17.—Joe Prince, nineteen years old, was convicted of murder and sentenced to life imprisonment at Lebanon, Mo. Prince shot Charles J. Loran, a school teacher, last May. The shooting was the outcome of a feud.

GOVERNOR REMAINS SILENT

Sulzer Merely Says He Would Like to be Unmuzzled.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 17.—"The muzzle is off my friends. I would like to be unmuzzled myself, but Judge Herick won't remove it."

This was the only statement which came from Governor Sulzer. Samuel Bell Thomas, one of Sulzer's "kitchen cabinet," delivered the message to newspaper men after he had taken dinner with the governor.

According to Thomas the governor is in the best of spirits. While the newsmen shouted their extras around the executive mansion the governor chatted with his dinner guests.

While the court was voting Governor Sulzer was taking an automobile ride.

WILSON TAKES HAND IN CURRENCY BILL

Holds Conference With Three Doubtful Senators.

Washington, Oct. 17.—President Wilson took a hand in the situation in the senate banking and currency committee, personally inquiring of Senators Hitchcock, Reed and O'Gorman, the only three Democratic senators whose attitude has been a matter of doubt to the administration, just what were the prospects for currency legislation during the present session of congress.

Later the president described his individual conferences with the three senators as satisfactory and reiterated his confidence that the measure would be passed by the senate before the December session. He determined, however, that while the situation was improving daily his constant presence in Washington was required and canceled his plans to go with Secretary Daniels of the navy department and other members of the cabinet to witness target practice of the Atlantic fleet off Virginia capes.

All three senators assured the president that they favored an early report as was consistent with careful study and studious amendment of the house bill.

NEW RATE DATE SUSPENDED

Commerce Commission May Reopen Duluth Case.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The interstate commerce commission suspended from Nov. 1 to Dec. 1 the date when their order reducing the rail and lake rate between Atlantic coast points and Duluth from 68 cents to 63 cents should become effective.

It is understood that the suspension order was made because the railroads have asked for a rehearing of the case and the commission wishes to determine whether the hearing should be granted.

It is possible that the railroads will be heard by the commission upon the question of whether the case should be reopened.

HUSBAND SAYS SUICIDE PACT

Wife Dead and Man Suffering From Several Wounds.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Mrs. William C. Ellis, prominent in Cincinnati society, was found dead in bed in her room in a hotel. Her throat had been cut and she had been shot twice under the left arm. Ellis, a wealthy leather merchant of Cincinnati, was staggering around the room, his throat and wrists gashed by a knife and suffering from three bullet wounds, when detectives forced their way into the room.

Ellis was taken to a hospital, where he declared his wife had killed herself and that he had attempted to end his life as a result of a suicide pact. Officers say he followed his wife here, saying she came to meet another man. His injuries are not serious.

WHY FOLK TOOK SOLICITORSHIP

Rumor That He May Step Into Bryan's Shoes.

HAS TAKEN HOLD OF WORK

Many Congressional "Would Be Leaders" Are Unwelcome—Sensible Change by McAdoo—Kentuckians Spar Between Themselves—Marshall "Busts" Another Senatorial Tradition.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Oct. 17.—[Special.]—There was considerable surprise in political circles when Joseph W. Folk accepted the place of solicitor in the state department. It is a good legal job, but the counselor is a higher legal place in the department, besides being designated to act as secretary when Mr. Bryan is absent. Perhaps the speculation as to why a man who had been governor of a great state and was making good money on the lecture platform should accept a subordinate place in the state department caused the "understudy" talk that has been heard in Washington.

Only "sub rosa" and "under your hat" and such other methods of retelling secrets is it rumored that in case-in case, mind you—there should—ah, well, you know—something might happen, and if there should be a vacancy at the head of the cabinet it would be a good thing to have a man ready to step right in who was of cabinet size.

Folk Has Taken Hold.

Governor Folk has taken right hold of the state department work in a manner to show that he means business. He goes right along with various complex questions that are continually arising. He is much more of a politician than John Bassett Moore, the counselor, who is learned in international law and does not look at the questions coming before him with a political slant. Joe Folk was not only big enough to be governor of Missouri, but he was big enough to be considered as in the running for president.

Would Be Leaders.

A lot of men on the Democratic side recognize only one leader in the house. When anything relating to procedure in the house or a tariff matter is before the body no one undertakes to interfere with Oscar Underwood. He makes the motions and conducts the parliamentary contests.

Not so with other men. It has always been quasi conceded that a man in charge of a bill should be the leader for the time being. Chairman Fitzgerald considers himself responsible when appropriation bills are pending. But that does not prevent a lot of other men who would be leaders from breaking in and making the parliamentary motions that ordinarily would be left to Fitz. And Fitz doesn't like it.

Figures For Letters.

For as many years as the government existed all appropriation bills carried the amounts in words. For instance, if there was an appropriation of $3,465.25 it would read three thousand four hundred and sixty-five dollars and twenty-five cents. Some one had sense enough a year or two ago to stop it, and all appropriations now appear in figures.

Secretary McAdoo of the treasury department has cut out the puzzling MCMXIII method of dating the erection of public buildings and substituting plain 1913. In years to come the average person who sees these figures can tell when a building was erected.

Kentuckians Spurred.

All through the tariff debates it was noticed that sparring between Ollie James and Joe Bristow was frequent. Bristow is a native of Kentucky, but that did not bring him in close relationship with the big man from that state. Whenever James talked about sugar Bristow would come in with something about whisky and tobacco. And then they would swat each other a few times and the contest would go over for another time.

Marshall Did Not Find It.

As long as the oldest man about the capitol can remember it has been the custom of the presiding officer, be he vice president or senator, to reprove the galleries when any demonstration of approval or disapproval is manifested and to sternly admonish the occupants that such demonstrations are not permitted.

Not long ago, when there were laughter and applause in the galleries, Senator Warren told the vice president that the rules did not permit such demonstrations.

"I have examined the rules," said Mr. Marshall, "and I do not find any such provision."

And so another senatorial tradition is "busted."

Out in the Campaign.

Quite a number of congressmen who fall to answer to their names during the troublesome days of getting a quorum will have the excuse that they are out in the campaign. The contests in Maryland, Massachusetts and New Jersey, even in this "off year," are exciting quite a good deal of interest, for they are the signal guns of next year and 1916.

Reasonably Sure.

DOROTHY AINSWORTH.

Girl Testifies Against Her Mother at Murder Trial.

GIRL TESTIFIES AGAINST MOTHER

Mrs. Eaton on Trial for Murder of Her Husband.

Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 17.—Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, on trial for the murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph Giles Eaton, United States navy (retired), heard her sixteen-year-old daughter, Dorothy Virginia Ainsworth, support the contention of the prosecution that she was unreasonably jealous toward her husband.

Under the questioning of District Attorney Barker, Dorothy testified that her mother was easily angered and had continual hallucinations that the admiral was trying to poison the family.

Dorothy spent two hours upon the witness stand.

Assistant District Attorney Katzmann outlined the case for the prosecution, claiming jealousy as a motive for the alleged crime. Dorothy's testimony substantiated in several particulars the points on which Mr. Katzmann had placed emphasis.

An indication of the pposable line of the defense will be given in the cross-examination of Medical Examiner Osgood by Attorney Morse. His questions were aimed to bring out the possibility that Admiral Eaton might have partaken of the poison in connection with a drug habit.

The government asserts that the poison was administered by Mrs. Eaton in tea, coffee and other beverages at meals.

STATE EMPLOYE IS FREE

Judge Dismisses Minnesotan on Larceny Charge.

Willmar, Minn., Oct. 17.—Upon motion of Stan Donnelly, attorney for the defendant, Judge G. E. Quayle, in the district court of Kandiyohi county, dismissed the case against Lucius G. Tong, superintendent of construction of the state board of control, charged with larceny in the second degree. Judge Quayle based his action, as he expressed it, on "the fatal variance of the proofs produced with the statement of the offense in the indictment."

It was charged that Tong, while superintending the construction of the state insane asylum here, caused to be issued a check for $31.25 to Gustaf Erickson, a day laborer, alleged to have had but $6 due him, Erickson cashing the check and turning the proceeds over to Tong, who gave Erickson his $6 and kept the remainder.

ROUND UP STRIKING MINERS

Forty-five Are Arrested Near Trinidad, Colo.

Trinidad, Colo., Oct. 17.—Forty-five striking miners, charged with picketing, were arrested at the McLoughlin mine of the Santa Fe Coal company and marched three miles to the county jail at Trinidad.

Fifteen deputies armed with rifles flanked the prisoners on either side and a machine gun, mounted on an automobile, brought up the rear. In spite of this several members of the crowd of 200 strikers that followed the party attempted to break through the lines and liberate the prisoners.

INFECTED RATS IN SEATTLE

Four of Ten Caught Carried Bubonic Plague Germs.

Seattle, Oct. 17.—Four of ten rats caught in an old building near the waterfront were found to be infected with bubonic plague when examined by the city health department.

Health Commissioner Crichton believes the rats came ashore recently from some Orient liner.

Warden Intimates Reason for Prisoners' Charges.

Indianapolis, Oct. 17.—William H. Moyer, warden of the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., asserted he would not yet make an official reply to the charges made by Julian Hawthorne and Dr. W. J. Morton, released from the prison, that the institution was "a hell on earth." Mr. Moyer, who has been here attending the American Prison association's meetings, departed for his home.

"I do not care to make an official statement at this time," Mr. Moyer said. "The attorney general of the United States has been asked by me to investigate conditions for the government's satisfaction. I do not know what prompted the charges, but the fact that Hawthorne and Dr. Morton were once denied parole may throw light on the situation."

FLEEING FROM VENEZUELA

Prominent Politicians Seek Safety in Foreign Countries.

Willemstad, Curacao, Oct. 17.—The departure of prominent politicians from Venezuela continues. General Trino Baptista, former minister of public instruction, has arrived at Buenos Ayres. He was the strongest opponent in the government council of the agreement between Venezuela and France, re-establishing diplomatic relations.

General Baptista was accompanied by Marco Antonio Freytes. Both are friends of General Chalbaud, former commander general of the navy. General Chalbaud was imprisoned in August.

DENIES CORNERING COTTON

Colonel Thompson Pleads Not Guilty in Patten Case.

New York, Oct. 17.—Colonel Robert M. Thompson, Wall street broker, pleaded not guilty to a superseding indictment in the federal court charging him with conspiracy with James A. Patten and others to corner the cotton crop of 1909.

The other defendants had pleaded not guilty, with the exception of Mr. Patten, who paid a fine rather than contest the case.

Colonel Thompson was released in $2,000 bail for trial.

Rumored President Makes Another Move for Peace.

IS THROUGH WITH HUERTA

Chief Executive Intimates He Is Irrevocably Determined to Deal No Longer With Present Mexican President—No Other Move May Be Taken Until After the Elections.

Washington, Oct. 17.—President Wilson indicated to those with whom he discussed the Mexican situation that he was irrevocably determined to deal no longer with the Huerta regime, but that further steps toward bringing peace to Mexico were being considered. No move is expected, however, until after Oct. 26, the date set for the Mexican elections.

Just what the Washington government will do is a matter of speculation among officials, but the trend of events, they say, is unmistakably toward conducting negotiations with the Constitutionalists.

The policy of the United States has been to make complete records of having attempted to handle the problem by peaceful means. Up to the present parleys have been carried on with the Huerta authorities, who have rejected the good offices of the United States.

Strong pressure now is being brought to bear upon the president and Secretary Bryan to give the Constitutionalists an opportunity to compose the situation through the support of this country.

Reports that the president was preparing to recognize the belligerency of the Constitutionalists are based chiefly upon the friendly disposition toward them that has arisen among administration officials since Huerta's proclamation of dictatorship.

Attitude One of Waiting.

The suggestion has been carried to President Wilson by those upon whose judgment he and Secretary Bryan have in the past been guided and, while the attitude is one of waiting until Oct. 26 arrives, it appeared that some move indicating support for the Constitutionalists was not improbable.

It is pointed out by those who are urging informal dealings with the Constitutionalists that in reality Governor Carranza was legally elected chief executive of the state of Coahuila and that he and Governor Maytorena of Sonora justify their armed resistance against those who took possession of the federal government machinery in the Mexican capital by arbitrarily overthrowing Madero.

That President Wilson believes the Mexico City administration is incapable of restoring constitutional authority is evident and there is a well founded understanding that the Washington government would adopt a very drastic policy immediately but for the fear that it would be interfering with the domestic program of currency and legislative reform.

The Washington government would welcome the elimination of Huerta and if this can be accomplished by lifting the embargo on arms or giving the Constitutionalists the moral support of this country many officials favor such a policy.

GARIBALDI'S SON ATTACKED

Struck by Stick During Hostile Political Demonstration.

Rome, Oct. 17.—The campaign in the general elections, which will be held Oct. 26, is waxing warmer and in some cases political activity has taken the form of violence.

A meeting of Garibaldians was held to register a protest against Ricciotti Garibaldi, the only surviving son of the patriot, because he had given his support to the candidacy of Mario di Medici, who is supported by the Clericals.

Ricciotti Garibaldi, crippled by old wounds, arrived here and drove through a hostile gathering. He was attacked by the demonstrators, one of whom struck him with a stick.

His assailant was arrested and a police restored order.

All in it were drowned except Chief Officer Miller and a steward, who climbed into it after it had righted. Into the next boat went thirty passengers and ten sailors. This boat got away all right but has not been heard from.

Counted Three Explosions.

Inch denied reports of rotting tackle and fire hose and of unsafe lifeboats, all of which were in good condition, he said. He counted only three explosions, the last one wrecking wheel and compass so that a handcar had to be rigged up.

Inch denied stories of stowaway passengers that women were swept overboard and babies were trampled while being rescued by the Grosser Kurfuerst's first boat that came in response to Lloyd's call. Officers urged men and women to jump overboard when the lifeboat could not get near enough for them to be lowered into it. None dared jump.

"Show them how to jump," Inch told his crew. Two at a time they leaped over the rail. When passengers saw them reach the lifeboat they followed them into the sea. With boat hooks and oars some were rescued. Others met their death.

Inch's three children and their mother are in London. One of his first acts upon arriving here was to send them a cablegram. Their father worked thirty-six hours without eating or drinking, refusing to leave the work of fire fighting.

Montana Pioneer Is Dead.

Butte, Mont., Oct. 17.—John R. Quigley, Sr., pioneer of prominence and a well known Democrat, is dead after a week's illness in a hospital at Deer Lodge, his home town. Mr. Quigley opened the first store in Blackfoot City in 1859 and, following the death of Powell county, he had enjoyed the distinction of being the chairman of every county convention held in that county.

GOVERNOR REMAINS SILENT

Sulzer Merely Says He Would Like to be Unmuzzled.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 17.—"The muzzle is off my friends. I would like to be unmuzzled myself, but Judge Herick won't remove it."

This was the only statement which came from Governor Sulzer. Samuel Bell Thomas, one of Sulzer's "kitchen cabinet," delivered the message to newspaper men after he had taken dinner with the governor.

According to Thomas the governor is in the best of spirits. While the newsmen shouted their extras around the executive mansion the governor chatted with his dinner guests.

While the court was voting Governor Sulzer was taking an automobile ride.

WILSON TAKES HAND IN CURRENCY BILL

Holds Conference With Three Doubtful Senators.

Washington, Oct. 17.—President Wilson took a hand in the situation in the senate banking and currency committee, personally inquiring of Senators Hitchcock, Reed and O'Gorman, the only three Democratic senators whose attitude has been a matter of doubt to the administration. Just what were the prospects for currency legislation during the present session of congress.

Later the president described his individual conferences with the three senators as satisfactory and reiterated his confidence that the measure would be passed by the senate before the December session. He determined, however, that while the situation was improving daily his constant presence in Washington was required and canceled his plans to go with Secretary Daniels of the navy department and other members of the cabinet to witness target practice off the Atlantic fleet off Virginia capes.

All three senators assured the president that they favored as early a report as was consistent with careful study and studious amendment of the house bill.

NEW RATE DATE SUSPENDED

Commerce Commission May Reopen Duluth Case.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The interstate commerce commission suspended from Nov. 1 to Dec. 1 the date when their order reducing the rail and lake rate between Atlantic coast points and Duluth from 68 cents to 63 cents should become effective.

It is understood that the suspension order was made because the railroads have asked for a rehearing of the case and the commission wishes to determine whether the hearing should be granted.

It is possible that the railroads will be heard by the commission upon the question of whether the case should be reopened.

HUSBAND SAYS SUICIDE PACT

Wife Dead and Man Suffering From Several Wounds.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Mrs. William C. Ellis, prominent in Cincinnati society, was found dead in bed in her room in a hotel. Her throat had been cut and she had been shot twice under the left arm. Ellis, a wealthy leather merchant of Cincinnati, was staggering about the room, his throat and wrists gashed by a knife and suffering from three bullet wounds, when detectives forced their way into the room.

Ellis was taken to a hospital, where he declared his wife had killed herself and that he had attempted to end his life as a result of a suicide pact. Officers say he followed his wife here, saying she came to meet another man. His injuries are not serious.

WHY FOLK TOOK SOLICITORSHIP

Rumor That He May Step Into Bryan's Shoes.

HAS TAKEN HOLD OF WORK

Many Congressional "Would Be Leaders" Are Unwelcome—Sensible Change by McAdoo—Kentuckians Spar Between Themselves—Marshall "Busts" Another Senatorial Tradition.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Oct. 17.—[Special.]—There was considerable surprise in political circles when Joseph W. Folk accepted the place of solicitor in the state department. It is a good legal job, but the counselor is a higher legal place in the department, besides being designated to act as secretary when Mr. Bryan is absent. Perhaps the speculation as to why a man who had been governor of a great state and was making good money on the lecture platform should accept a subordinate place in the state department caused the "understudy" talk that has been heard in Washington.

Only "sub rosa" and "under your hat" and such other methods of retelling secrets is it rumored that in case-in case, mind you—there should—ah, well, you know—something might happen, and if there should be a vacancy at the head of the cabinet it would be a good thing to have a man ready to step right in who was of cabinet size.

Folk Has Taken Hold.

Governor Folk has taken right hold of the state department work in a manner to show that he means business. He goes right along with various complex questions that are continually arising. He is much more of a politician than John Bassett Moore, the counselor, who is learned in international law and does not look at the questions coming before him with a political slant. Joe Folk was not only big enough to be governor of Missouri, but he was big enough to be considered as in the running for president.

Would Be Leaders.

A lot of men on the Democratic side recognize only one leader in the house. When anything relating to procedure in the house or a tariff matter is before the body no one undertakes to interfere with Oscar Underwood. He makes the motions and conducts the parliamentary contests.

Not so with other men. It has always been quasi conceded that a man in charge of a bill should be the leader for the time being. Chairman Fitzgerald considers himself responsible when appropriation bills are pending. But that does not prevent a lot of other men who would be leaders from breaking in and making the parliamentary motions that ordinarily would be left to Fitzgerald. And Fitzgerald doesn't like it.

Figures For Letters.

For as many years as the government existed all appropriation bills carried the amounts in words. For instance, if there was an appropriation of $3,456,251 it would read three thousand four hundred and sixty-five dollars and twenty-five cents. Some one had sense enough a year or two ago to stop it, and all appropriations now appear in figures.

Secretary McAdoo of the treasury department has cut out the puzzling MCMXXIII method of dating the erection of public buildings and substituting plain 1913. In years to come the average person who sees these figures can tell when a building was erected.

Kentuckians Sparred.

All through the tariff debates it was noticed that sparring between Ollie James and Joe Bristow was frequent. Bristow is a native of Kentucky, but that did not bring him in close relationship with the big man from that state. Whenever James talked about sugar Bristow would come in with something about whiskey and tobacco. And then they would sweat each other a few times and the contest would go over for another time.

Marshall Did Not Find It.

As long as the oldest man about the capitol can remember it has been the custom of the presiding officer, be he vice president or senator, to reprove the galleries when any demonstration of approval or disapproval is manifested and to sternly admonish the occupants that such demonstrations are not permitted.

Not long ago, when there were laughter and applause in the galleries, Senator Warren told the vice president that the rules did not permit such demonstrations.

"I have examined the rules," said Mr. Marshall, "and I do not find any such provision."

And so another senatorial tradition is "busted."

Quite a number of congressmen who fail to answer to their names during the troublesome days of getting a quorum will have the excuse that they are out in the campaign. The contests in Maryland, Massachusetts and New Jersey, even in this "off year," are exciting quite a good deal of interest, for they are the signal guns of next year and 1916.

Reasonably Sure.

She—Lola writes for the magazines. He—She'll get 'em if she sends the price—Judge.

DOROTHY AINSWORTH.
Girl Testifies Against Her Mother at Murder Trial.

GIRL TESTIFIES AGAINST MOTHER

Mrs. Eaton on Trial for Murder of Her Husband.

Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 17.—Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, on trial for the murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph Giles Eaton, United States navy (retired), heard her sixteen-year-old daughter, Dorothy Virginia Ainsworth, support the contention of the prosecution that she was unreasonably jealous toward her husband.

Under the questioning of District Attorney Barker, Dorothy testified that her mother was easily angered and had continual hallucinations that the admiral was trying to poison the family.

Dorothy spent two hours upon the witness stand. Assistant District Attorney Katzmann outlined the case for the prosecution, claiming jealousy as a motive for the alleged crime. Dorothy's testimony substantiated in several particulars the points on which Mr. Katzmann had placed emphasis.

An indication of the probable line of the defense will be given in the cross-examination of Medical Examiner Osgood by Attorney Morse. His questions were aimed to bring out the possibility that Admiral Eaton might have partaken of the poison in connection with a drug habit.

The government asserts that the poison was administered by Mrs. Eaton in tea, coffee and other beverages at meals.

STATE EMPLOYE IS FREE

Judge Dismisses Minnesotan on Larceny Charge.

Willmar, Minn., Oct. 17.—Upon motion of Stan Donnelly, attorney for the defendant, Judge G. E. Qvale, in the district court of Kandiyohi county, dismissed the case against Lucius G. Tong, superintendent of construction of the state board of control, charged with larceny in the second degree. Judge Qvale based his action, as he expressed it, "on the fatal variance of the proofs produced with the statement of the offense in the indictment."

It was charged that Tong, while superintending the construction of the state inebriate asylum here, caused to be issued a check for $31.25 to Gustaf Erickson, a day laborer, alleged to have had but $6 due him. Erickson cashing the check and turning the proceeds over to Tong, who gave Erickson his $6 and kept the remainder.

ROUND UP STRIKING MINERS

Forty-five Are Arrested Near Trinidad, Colo.

Trinidad, Colo., Oct. 17.—Forty-nine striking miners, charged with picketing were arrested at the McLaughlin mine of the Santa Fe Coal company and marched three miles to the county jail at Trinidad.

Fifteen deputies armed with rifles flanked the prisoners on either side and a machine gun, mounted on an automobile, brought up the rear. In spite of this several members of the crowd of 300 strikers that followed the party attempted to break through the lines and liberate the prisoners.

INFECTED RATS IN SEATTLE

Four of Ten Caught Carried Bubonic Plague Germs.

Seattle, Oct. 17.—Four of ten rats caught in an old building near the waterfront were found to be infected with bubonic plague when examined by the city health department.

Health Commissioner Crichton believes the rats came ashore recently from some Oriental liner.

Pipe Line Arguments End.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Argument of cases testing the constitutionality of the law placing oil pipe lines under the regulations of the interstate commerce commission was concluded before the supreme court.

WILSON SOUNDS MEXICAN REBELS

WERE ONCE DENIED PAROLE

Warden Intimates Reason for Prisoners' Charges.

Indianapolis, Oct. 17.—William H. Moyer, warden of the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., asserted he would not yet make an official reply to the charges made by Julian Hawthorne and Dr. W. J. Morton, released from the prison, that the institution was "a hell on earth." Mr. Moyer, who has been here attending the American Prison association's meetings, departed for his home.

"I do not care to make an official statement at this time," Mr. Moyer said. "The attorney general of the United States has been asked by me to investigate conditions for the government's satisfaction. I do not know what prompted the charges, but the fact that Hawthorne and Dr. Morton were once denied parole may throw light on the situation."

FLEEING FROM VENEZUELA

Prominent Politicians Seek Safety in Foreign Countries.

Willemstad, Curacao, Oct. 17.—The departure of prominent politicians from Venezuela continues. General Trino Baptista, former minister of public instruction, has arrived at Buenos Ayres. He was the strongest opponent in the government council of the agreement between Venezuela and France, re-establishing diplomatic relations.

General Baptista was accompanied by Marco Antonio Freytes. Both are friends of General Chabaud, former commander general of the navy. General Chabaud was imprisoned in August.

Colonel Thompson Pleads Not Guilty in Patten Case.

New York, Oct. 17.—Colonel Robert M. Thompson, Wall street broker, pleaded not guilty to a superseding indictment in the federal court charging him with conspiracy with James A. Patten and others to corner the cotton crop of 1909.

The other defendants had pleaded not guilty, with the exception of Mr. Patten, who paid a fine rather than contest the case.

Colonel Thompson was released in $2,000 bail for trial.

Le Grande Powers Quits.

Rumored President Makes Another Move for Peace.

IS THROUGH WITH HUERTA

Chief Executive Intimates He Is Irretrievably Determined to Deal No Longer With Present Mexican President—No Other Move May Be Taken Until After the Elections.

Washington, Oct. 17.—That President Wilson, in a telegram to General Carranza, leader of the anti-Huerta movement in Northern Mexico, had asked for suggestions from the Constitutionalists looking toward the establishment of peace in Mexico, was asserted by T. Bonillas, a Sonora state congressman. The contents of President Wilson's message were not revealed.

Washington, Oct. 17.—President Wilson indicated to those with whom he discussed the Mexico situation that he was irretrievably determined to deal no longer with the Huerta regime, but that further steps toward bringing peace to Mexico were being considered. No move is expected, however, until after Oct. 26, the date set for the Mexican elections.

Just what the Washington government will do is a matter of speculation among officials, but the trend of events, they say, is unmistakably toward conducting negotiations with the Constitutionalists.

The policy of the United States has been to make complete records of having attempted to handle the problem by peaceful means. Up to the present parleys have been carried on with the Huerta authorities, who have rejected the good offices of the United States.

Strong pressure now is being brought to bear upon the president and Secretary Bryan to give the Constitutionalists an opportunity to compose the situation through the support of this country.

Reports that the president was preparing to recognize the belligerency of the Constitutionalists are based chiefly upon the friendly disposition toward them that has arisen among administration officials since Huerta's proclamation of dictatorship.

Attitude One of Waiting.

The suggestion has been carried to President Wilson by those upon whose judgment he and Secretary Bryan have in the past been guided and, while the attitude is one of waiting until Oct. 26 arrives, it appeared that some move indicating support for the Constitutionalists was not improbable.

It is pointed out by those who are urging informal dealings with the Constitutionalists that in reality Governor Carranza was legally elected chief executive of the state of Coahuila and that he and Governor Maytorena of Sonora justify their armed resistance of Huerta as a measure of defense against those who took possession of the federal government machinery in the Mexican capital by arbitrarily overthrowing Madero.

That President Wilson believes the Mexico City administration is incapable of restoring constitutional authority is evident and there is a well founded understanding that the Washington government would adopt a very drastic policy immediately but for the fear that it would be interfering with the domestic program of currency and legislative reform.

The Washington government would welcome the elimination of Huerta and if this can be accomplished by lifting the embargo on arms or giving the Constitutionalists the moral support of this country many officials favor such a policy.

GARIBALDI'S SON ATTACKED

Struck by Stick During Hostile Political Demonstration.

Rome, Oct. 17.—The campaign in the general elections, which will be held Oct. 26, is waxing warmer and in some cases political activity has taken the form of violence.

A meeting of Garibaldians was held to register a protest against Ricciotti Garibaldi, the only surviving son of the patriot, because he had given his support to the candidacy of Mario di Medici, who is supported by the Clericals.

Ricciotti Garibaldi, crippled by old wounds, arrived here and drove through a hostile gathering. He was attacked by the demonstrators, one of whom struck him with a stick.

His assailant was arrested and a police restored order.

H. J. Maxfield is being groomed for the office of state auditor and there are others who look with longing eyes toward this position. The auditor's office is probably the most important of any in the state and its administration should be in the hands of a most competent man.

Little Falls is making extensive preparations for the celebration in that city on October 25th which is to mark the opening of fifteen blocks of "white way" and which will also be a home coming day. The published program is interesting and a large attendance will be attracted.

The announcement of his candidacy for governor by Sam Iverson has started things moving in the political line in state politics. Mr. Iverson has long had his eye focused on the governor's chair and his wide acquaintance throughout the state makes him a formidable candidate. He has occupied the position of state auditor for many years.

Charles E. Ward has bought the Park Rapids Clipper and in future will edit this wide awake Park Rapids publication. Mr. Ward is not a hand in Minnesota Journalism having been connected with the Ada index for many years. The people of Park Rapids can rest assured that Charlie will give them the best that is in him and that the Clipper will be kept up to the standard under his management.

The editor of the Backus Booster says he attended prayer meeting last Sunday evening, "and to an observer it was like a three ring circus, devout people praying in the left ring, bears dancing in the right ring, and a love romance in the center ring." The description of the Backus prayer meeting is certainly novel, but whether it is an advertising feature tended to increase the attendance at future meetings or simply the first impression of a meeting of this kind on the editor of that local paper does not appear.

If tongue is coated or if cross feverish, constipated give "California Syrup of Figs."

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, indigestion, diarrhea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.—Advt.

KENNEDY MINE HAS BIG PAYDAY

A Force is at Work Making New Grounds for the Ore Pile and Installing Machinery

GOOD FISHING NEAR CUYUNA

Dr. Ivan M. Linsin, of Cuyuna Hospital, Succeeded by Dr. Arden Freer, of N. Y.

Cuyuna, Minn., Oct. 17.—Payday at the Kennedy mine was on Thursday and again a large amount was disbursed among the miners. A force is at work making new grounds for the ore pile, leveling off the grounds, building a tram way for the dump and installing electrical machinery.

The change in the location of the stockpile at the mine makes it necessary to do considerable track laying.

Mrs. Jackson has returned from Superior where she was looking after her real estate interests.

Good fishing abounds in the vicinity of Cuyuna and it may be termed a hunter's paradise.

Drillers north of abbit lake are preparing their winter camps.

Dr. Ivan M. Linsin, who was the local physician at the Cuyuna hospital for the past two months, has gone to Minneapolis where he will resume his profession at a hospital.

There has been a change of time in the Soo Line passenger running east, the train now leaving a few moments after 7 in the morning.

It is expected that the street running north from the depot will be widened and graveled.

Main street is being graveled by Street Commissioner Sanderson.

Dr. Arden Freer, of New York City is the new physician in charge of the Cuyuna hospital.

"Girl in the Taxi"
If you can picture Bertie Fowler, a young man who has never been away from his mamma's apron strings trying to be a sport with "The Girl in the Taxi" at a swell New York Cafe and only five dollars in his clothes, you can readily see the possibilities for good rich comedy in this international success. Bertie is not backward. He asks every woman he meets to teach him how to make love. He gets there even if he has to pawn all his father's clothes to do so. Bertie meets "The Girl in the Taxi"—she, a dashing widow of many times soon finds his weakness, runs up a bill of many dollars and leaves poor Bertie facing arrest, when he finds papa doing the same thing in the same cafe. Papa, to save himself, comes to the rescue. If ever there was a double jointed cyclone of fun, this New York, Paris and wide world success is one that has never had an equal. It will be seen here Sunday, Oct. 19, tomorrow, at the Brainerd opera house. You are not taking any chances. You will roar for three acts, go home and wake up to find you have been laughing in your sleep.

THE WEATHER

Temperature record taken at Gull lake dam, by caretaker, Arthur L.

H. J. Maxfield is being groomed for the office of state auditor and there are others who look with longing eyes toward this position. The auditor's office is probably the most important of any in the state and its administration should be in the hands of a most competent man.

Little Falls is making extensive preparations for the celebration in that city on October 25th which is to mark the opening of fifteen blocks of "white way" and which will also be a home coming day. The published program is interesting and a large attendance will be attracted.

The announcement of his candidacy for governor by Sam Iverson has started things moving in the political line in state politics. Mr. Iverson has long had his eye focused on the governor's chair and his wide acquaintance throughout the state makes him a formidable candidate.
He has occupied the position of state auditor for many years.

Charles E. Ward has bought the Park Rapids Clipper and in future will edit this wide awake Park Rapids publication. Mr. Ward is not a new hand in Minnesota journalism having been connected with the Ada index for many years. The people of Park Rapids can rest assured that Charlie will give them the best that is in him and that the Clipper will be kept up to the standard under his management.

The editor of the Backus Booster says he attended prayer meeting last Sunday evening, "and to an observer it was like a three ring circus, devout people praying in the left ring, bears dancing in the right ring and a love romance in the center ring." The description of the Backus prayer meeting is certainly novel, but whether it is an advertising feature tended to increase the attendance at future meetings or simply the first impression of a meeting of this kind on the editor of that local paper does not appear.

FOLEY HOTEL CASE DECIDED

Judge McClenahan Decides for Defendant in Suit of Allis vs. T. R. Foley, of Aitkin

SUIT FOR $15,000 DAMAGES

Allis Alleged Breach of Warranty. Hotel Being on Northern Pacific Right of Way

Judge W. S. McClenahan yesterday heard in chambers the case of Allis et al vs. T. R. Foley and decided in favor of the defendant.

Attorney F. E. Ebner, attorney for Mr. Foley, of Aitkin, gave the Dispatch this history of the celebrated case:

"T. R. Foley and wife gave a warranty deed to what is known as the Hotel Foley property. By mesne conveyances this title passed to Allis, subject to mortgages which were given by the owners after Foley's conveyance.

"Subsequently the Northern Pacific railway company brought action in the United States circuit court and obtained decree to fifty feet of the property covered by the Foley hotel as their right of way.

"The mortgage was foreclosed. Last spring Allis brought suit for $15,000 damages for breach of warranty. The time for the redemption in the mortgage foreclosure sale expired on August 10 last and no redemption having been made, Foley concluded that Allis had no further interest and no right to recover.

"The facts having been admitted as to no redemption, the court sustained Foley's contention and dismissed the suit as to all persons except the owner and holder of the sheriff's certificate of sale under the foreclosure."

The case is of more than ordinary interest as it involves many points of law. All Aitkin was interested in the outcome. Among Mr. Foley's witnesses were B. R. Hassman, cashier of the First National bank; Col. Potter, D. M. Falconer and F. W. Hall.

Practical suggestions gleaned from the Federation

Mrs. W. C. Cobb.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surface of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Take "all's" Pills for constipation.

BUSH HERE ON MONDAY AFTERNOON

The great question of the hour: "When's Bush coming?" has been answered by the Athletic pitcher himself in the following telegram to the Dispatch dated Philadelphia, Oct. 16-17:

"Will be home Sunday, October nineteenth, at two-thirty."

JOE BUSH.

However, Sunday is not a good day for a celebration as planned locally and accordingly the local committee, D. A. Peterson and T. H. Considine and Bush's father, John W. Bush have arranged that Bush shall stay over at St. Paul Sunday, thus giving the Twin City fans a chance for their demonstration.

Leslie Bush's formal entry into Brainerd will be made Monday, October 20, the pitcher arriving on the one-twenty afternoon train from St. Paul.

News of the date of the Brainerd celebration has been wired St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth, Superior, Chicago, Aitkin, International Falls, Crosby, Little Falls, St. Cloud, Staples.

TRAGEDY IN AIR, ZEPPELIN EXPLODES

The party included the entire admiralty trial board headed by Commander Benisch, who were conducting the final trials prior to the acceptance of the airship as part of the new German aerial navy.

The healing demulcent qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound are not duplicated in any other medicine for coughs and colds. Any substitute offered you is an inferior article. SULZER IS NO LONGER GOVERNOR

Special to Dispatch:

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 17—William Sulzer no longer is governor of the state of New York. A few minutes before noon today high court of impeachment by a vote of 43 to 12 removed him from office. Senator Wende and Judge Cullen excused themselves from voting.

Can Garnishee Now

Mankato Free Press—The recent legislature amended the statutes providing for the garnishee.

Under the former law, $25 was exempt from garnishee out of any wage account due. Thus a man might be getting $100 a month, but if he was paid weekly installments of $25 his wages could not be garnisheed.

Under the new law the exemption is increased to $35, but with this important change, that the exemption is out of the total amount due for thirty days—no matter where the wages are paid weekly or monthly. Thus the wage account can be garnisheed for the amount over and above $35 which he has due him for wages.

Adenoids are a Menace to Children

Adenoids result from a succession of colds in babies and young children. They spoil the mental and physical life of a child. The condition that causes them may easily be avoided by careful parents. Quickly and thoroughly cure all colds and throat irritations by the use of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and adenoids will not develop. H. P. Dunn.—Adv. mf

The Composer of "Faust."

Gounod was one of the most fascinating men I have ever spoken with. His manner had a charm that was irresistible, and his kindly eyes, soft and smiling as a woman's, would light up with a smile, now tender, now humorous, that fixed itself ineffaceably upon the memory. He could speak English fairly well, but preferred his own language, in which he was a brilliant conversationalist, and he could use to advantage a fund of keen, ready wit.—Klein in "Thirty Years of Musical Life in London."

EAT CABBAGE, FISH SAUSAGE, NEW BREAD

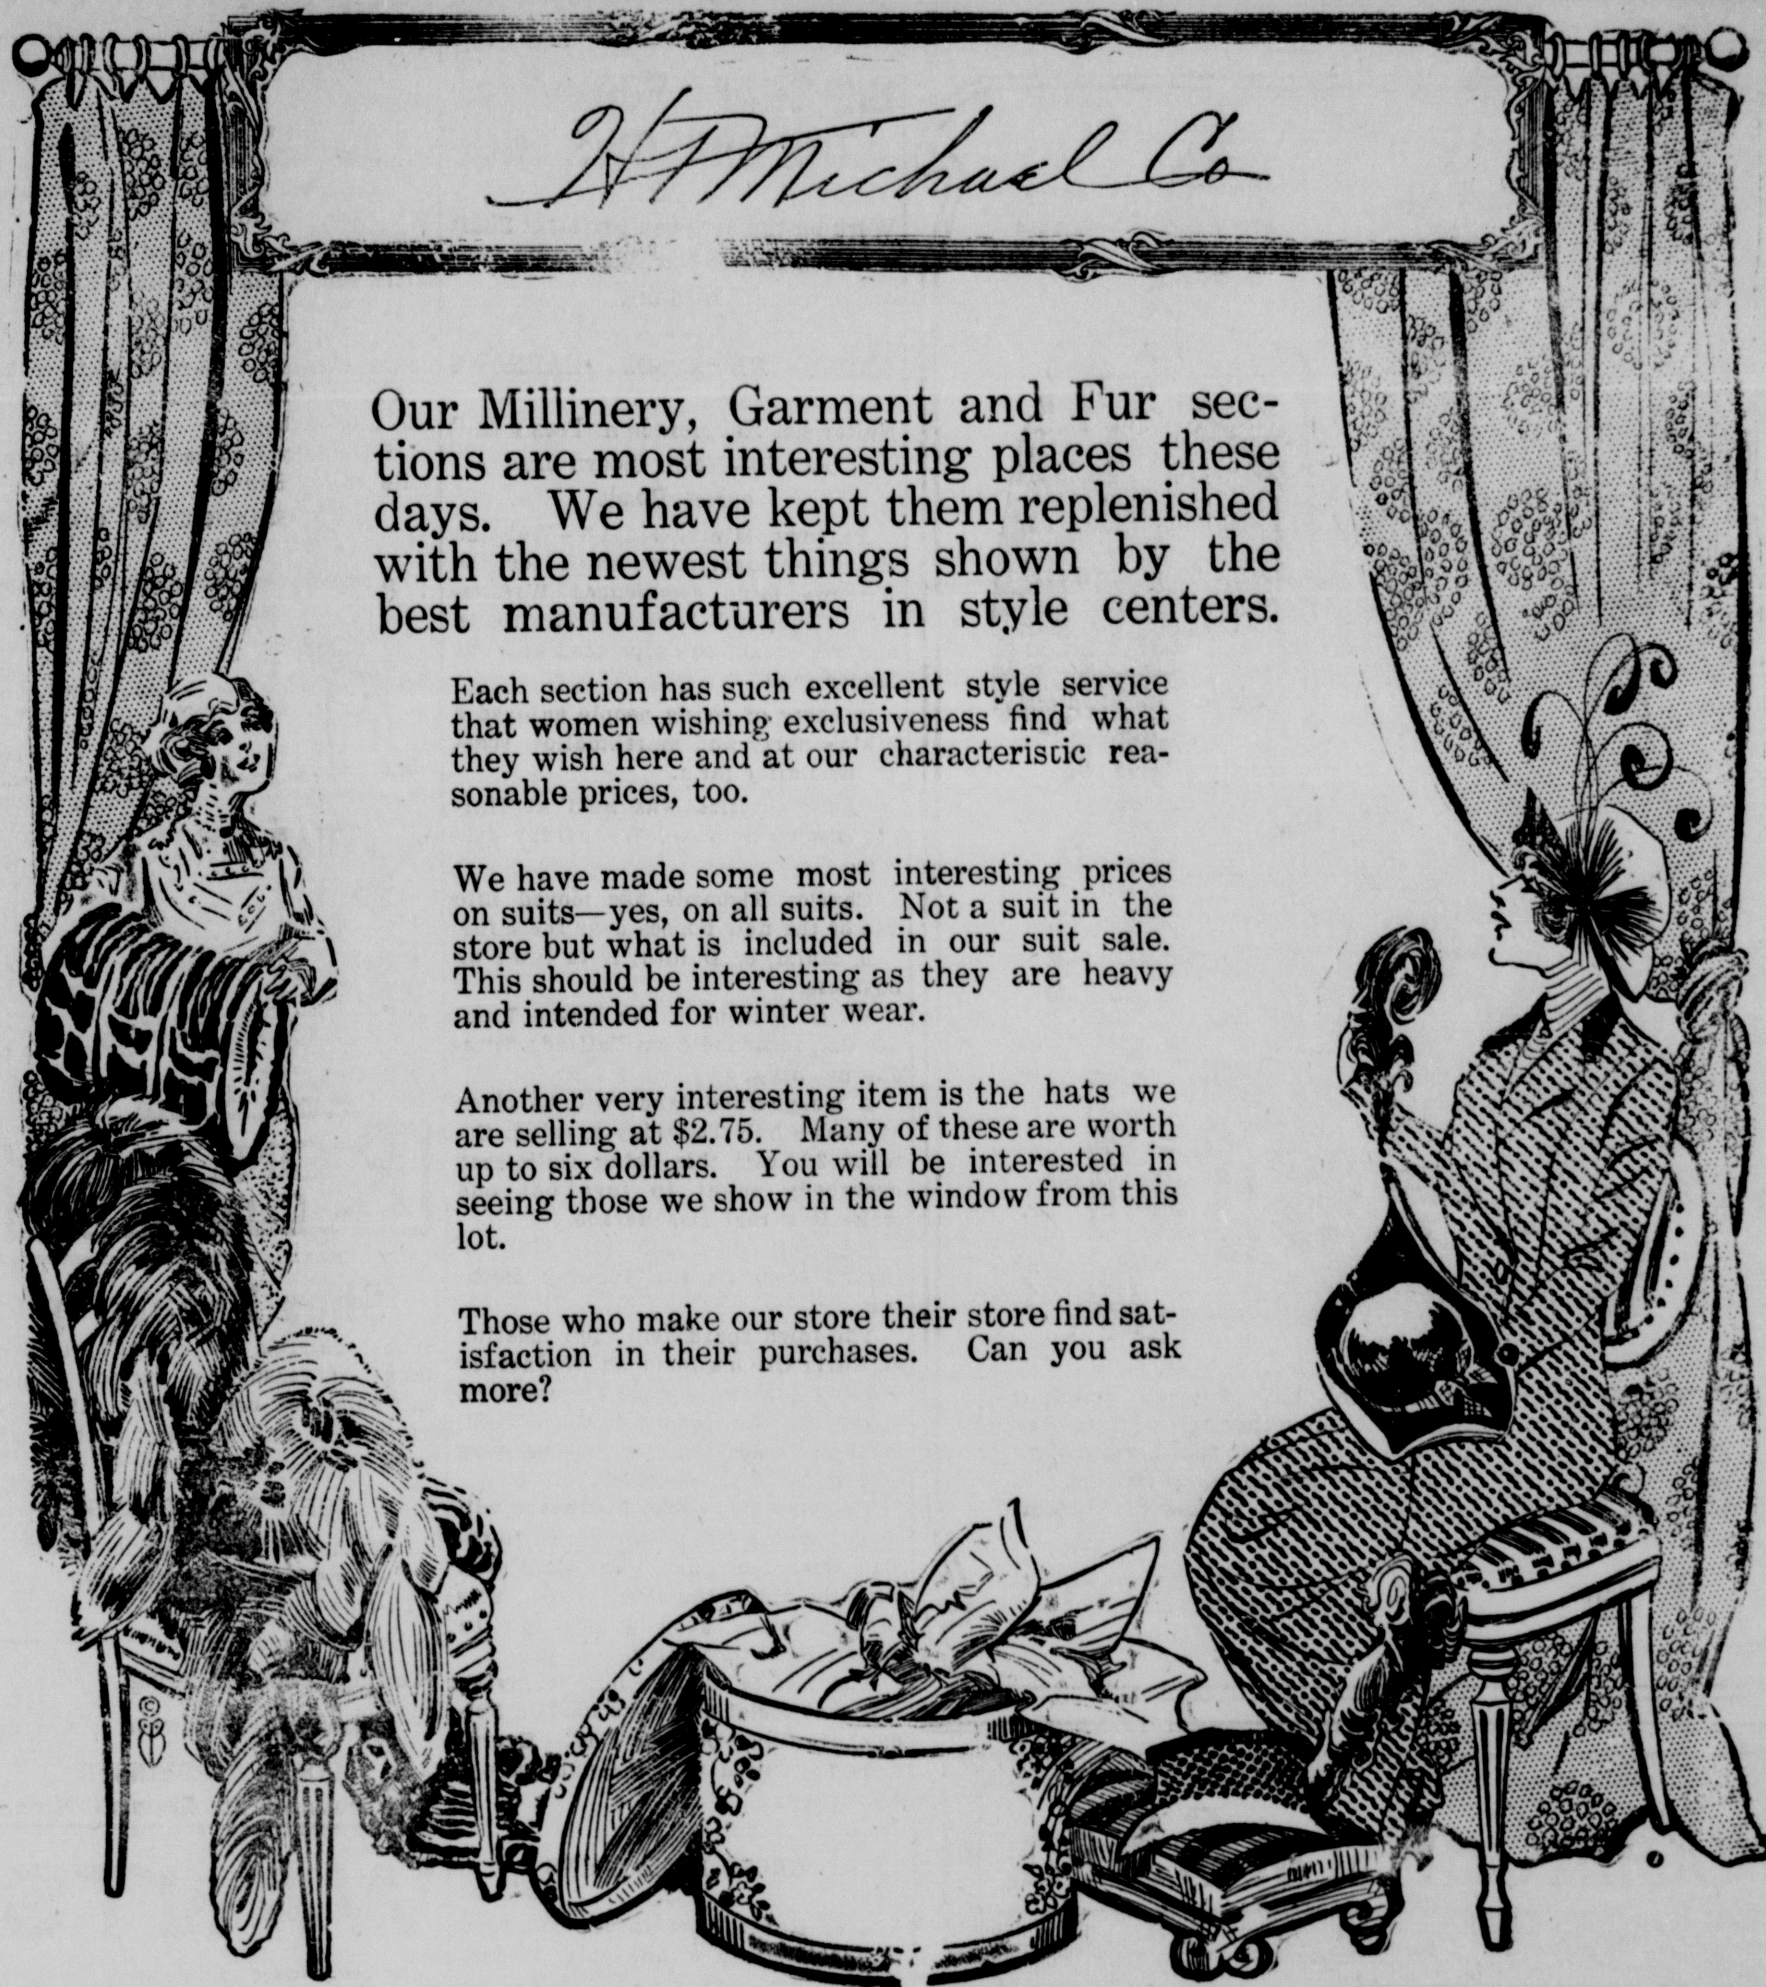

No Indigestion, Gas, Sourness or Upset Stomach if You'll Take Pape's "Diapiesin"—Try This!

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down: Pape's Diapiesin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapiesin" is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapiesin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.—Adv.

Our Millinery, Garment and Fur sections are most interesting places these days. We have kept them replenished with the newest things shown by the best manufacturers in style centers.

Each section has such excellent style service that women wishing exclusiveness find what they wish here and at our characteristic reasonable prices, too.

We have made some most interesting prices on suits—yes, on all suits. Not a suit in the store but what is included in our suit sale. This should be interesting as they are heavy and intended for winter wear.

Another very interesting item is the hats we are selling at $2.75. Many of these are worth up to six dollars. You will be interested in seeing those we show in the window from this lot.

Those who make our store their store find satisfaction in their purchases. Can you ask more?

Lofholm Farm Near Deerwood has Big Yield Potatoes—Other Deerwood Notes

Deerwood, Minn., Oct. 17—Deerwood's $15,000 waterworks bonds have received several bids and the town is now optimistic over the pending sale of the same, thus enabling work to be commenced on the projected improvement.

"Chemical" Rogers is teaching his four year old son the rudiments of football and the youngster can now kick the sphere over the summer kitchen roof.

Coal tracks are being laid at the Adams mine at Oreland and a steam shovel is assisting in the excavating.

J. A. Stetson is displaying some freak potatoes, big Burbanks of fantastic shapes, raised by P. A. Gough on his country place.

Cal Ruggles, of section 9, township 46, range 28, is raising ground almonds which makes an admirable hog food product.

The barn of C. F. Peterson at Portage lake burned to the ground Wednesday. It is believed that children playing with matches may have set fire to it.

Charles Wright, who formerly conducted a jewelry store in Deerwood, has returned and will probably again enter into business.

William Seafeld, usually very lucky, lost out in the world's series.

Paul M. Hale and bride are expected home the latter part of the week.

At the Lofholm farm potatoes went 200 bushels to the acre and the average price obtained was 50 cents a bushel. At this rate a man could buy $100 an acre land and pay for it with his first crop, and potatoes are a better crop than flax.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church met with Mrs. Waserzieder Wednesday afternoon.

The seven months' old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reinhold died this week and the little one was buried Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ernster were entertained at dinner in Crosby on Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hayes.

William Seafeld, E. C. Holmes, Tom DeRocher, and Eugene Roseau spent Sunday hunting. Holmes landed a little partridge.

FOLEY HOTEL CASE DECIDED

Judge McClenahan Decides for Defendant in Suit of Allis vs T. R. Foley, of Aitkin

SUIT FOR $15,000 DAMAGES

Allis Alleged Breach of Warranty. Hotel Being on Northern Pacific Right of Way

Judge W. S. McClenahan yesterday heard in chambers the case of Allis et al vs T. R. Foley and decided in favor of the defendant.

Attorney F. E. Ebner, attorney for Mr. Foley, of Aitkin, gave the Dispatch this history of the celebrated case:

"T. R. Foley and wife gave a warranty deed to what is known as the Hotel Foley property. By mesne conveyances this title passed to Allis, subject to mortgages which were given by the owners after Foley's conveyance.

"Subsequently the Northern Pacific railway company brought action in the United States circuit court and obtained decree to fifty feet of the property covered by the Foley hotel as their right of way.

"The mortgage was foreclosed. Last spring Allis brought suit for $15,000 damages for breach of warranty. The time for the redemption in the mortgage foreclosure sale expired on August 10 last and no redemption having been made, Foley concluded that Allis had no further interest and no right to recover.

"The facts having been admitted as to no redemption, the court sustained Foley's contention and dismissed the suit as to all persons except the owner and holder of the sheriff's certificate of sale under the foreclosure."

The case is of more than ordinary interest as it involves many points of law. All Aitkin was interested in the outcome. Among Mr. Foley's witnesses were B. R. Hasmann, cashier of the First National bank; Col. Potter, D. M. Falconer and F. W. Hall.

Notice

This being housecleaning time, there may be those who would like to dispose of their old papers and magazines.
